

New Zealand Catalogue Cross Reference

Campbell Paterson vs. Stanley Gibbons

An aid to identifying stamps using different catalogue references

The background to creating this index was that, while I use the Campbell Paterson catalogue<sup>1</sup> for managing my collection, a large number of dealers, auction houses and exhibitions in the UK use the Stanley Gibbons<sup>2</sup> numbering and it was difficult to relate the two.

The two catalogues use a totally different method of ordering the issues – Stanley Gibbons focusses on the date of issue as the primary index whereas Campbell Paterson uses first a major type grouping and then the face value. The index covers the period from 1855 to 1952.

The index is in two parts: the first is Stanley Gibbons to Campbell Paterson. All entries in the Part 1 Catalogue are cross referenced and I am using the 2001* edition as that is the only one that I have readily available.

The second is Campbell Paterson to Stanley Gibbons using the same data. As the Campbell Paterson is a specialised catalogue not all references are included but I have indicated where a major listing is missing from the Stanley Gibbons.

The notation used is:-

*** indicates that I haven't been able to find a matching reference.

? indicates some doubt – this particularly applies to colour shades.

The index includes the back-of-book items where available.

* This edition (V3) updates the index to SG2019 but a few entries are from the SG2022 edition where renumbering has taken place (O.P.S.O Officials) and also includes Victoria Land. The O.P.S.O Officials can be found at the end of section E in the Campbell Paterson catalogue. I have also attempted to include some cross references to the US Scott catalogue (new Part 3). I haven't had sight of this catalogue and these entries are from third party sources – they are certainly incomplete.

Although it is intended to be as accurate as possible, errors will always exist but I hope that it will at least take you close to the required entry to be useful. Any corrections will be gratefully received.

Thanks,

Rick Parsons rick@west-penwith.org.uk
